

TAKEOVER

At Old Grocery

3rd-10th August 2023 | Gallery Opening Times 10 - 5:30

48 High St, Wivenhoe, Colchester CO7 9AZ

3rd August

Private View: 5-8pm

Opening event showcasing our exhibition and artists! Come down for an evening of music, art and drinks.

4th August

2-4pm

Millie McAvoy, a Photography graduate from London South Bank is running a clay nipple-making workshop based on her degree show work. Explores feminism and body positivity through art.

5th August

2-4pm

Olivia Hughes, Music student from Trinity College London is running a jazz and drawing session, inspired by John Cage and Kandinsky.

6th August

2-4pm

Jennifer Howe, Political Theatre student at Goldsmiths, is delivering a movement workshop which explores how storytelling and drama can be made more exciting, dynamic and emotional.

7th August

2-4pm

Ella Smith, a Fine Art: Drawing Graduate from UAL, is running a DIY zine-making workshop. Using collage, poetry and observational drawing, this workshop will explore how book-making can express internal experiences and voice opinions.

8th August

2-4pm

Hendrikje Dorussen, a recent English graduate from Cambridge is running a poetry workshop. Using cut-out words, images and collage, she creates poetry and art through writing.

9th August

2-4pm

Missy Crewe, a Fine Art : Drawing graduate from UAL is running a drawing workshop to explore our relationship with art and the natural world. Particularly inspired by the movement of rivers and water.

10th August

2-4pm

Al Hawkins, Political Theatre student at Goldsmiths, is running a theatre workshop exploring the power of playful performance and its potential as a social tool.

5-8pm

Closing Event, celebrating TAKEOVER and showcasing the work made over the course of the week!

All of our workshops are FREE! The aim of our event is to celebrate young creatives in Colchester and beyond, providing a space for connection and expression. All donations will go to our chosen charity, 'Create', which supports youth art projects.

We encourage you to bring along your own notebooks and pens if possible, see you there!